

Stretton on Stage presents

Love begins at Fifty

Stretton-on-Dunsmore village hall, 14 Church Hill, Stretton-on-Dunsmore, Rugby CV23 9NA.

A laugh-a-minute marital farce set in the 1980's presented in 2 acts, written by Raymond Hopkins and directed by Albert Lisztwan.

The play will run for 4 nights from Wednesday 6th to Saturday 9th March. Doors open from 6:45 with curtain up at 7:30 prompt. Ending around 10:00pm. Refreshments will be available prior to the performance and during the half time break.

Tickets are £10 each on all nights for all ages. Please note, due to the subject matter, this play is not recommended for under 16's. Tickets are available to be purchased from the 4th Feb from the Village store in Stretton-Dunsmore or by emailing tickets-strettononstage@gmail.com or by ringing 02476 544854.

Due to the size of the hall, ticket numbers are limited, you are therefore advised to book early to ensure a seat on your preferred night.

Love Begins at Fifty

by Raymond Hopkins

A FARCICAL COMEDY IN TWO ACTS